

McInturff & Associates

Supply Chain Manager – NPI (Job #2666)

This position will focus on defining and developing supply chain partnerships for core technology in support of existing and future products. This position will also include supply chain development, supply contracting, core subsystem qualifications and development of technology supply strategies and product roadmaps for core markets.

Qualifications:

- BS in Engineering is mandatory
- 10 years lead experience with Supply Chain contracting for technically complex products and subsystems
- Ability to interpret engineering drawings and specifications as well as competency in understanding complex technical specifications
- Significant depth of experience in developing definition of SOWs and NPI design requirements
- OEM electromechanical capital equipment experience in a technology environment
- Strong technical, contracting, program control and analysis skills
- Engineering program control or project management expertise and experience managing technical global supply partners

Location: Burlington, MA

Salary: $90,000 - $100,000

Recruiters for Supply Chain, Materials and Operations
Bob McInturff
McInturff & Associates, Inc.
209 West Central Street, Natick, MA 01760
508-653-4050 Bob@McInturff.com